

July 16, 2018

4th Annual Dansville Central School Wall of Pride Induction Ceremony

Dansville Central Schools, in conjunction with The Foundation for Dansville Education, will host the fourth annual Wall of Pride Induction Ceremony on October 20, 2018.

On Saturday, October 20, 2018, five influential members of the Dansville community will be honored at the fourth annual Wall of Pride Induction Ceremony. Housed in the Dansville High School, the Wall of Pride celebrates alumni, community members and educators who have made a significant contribution to society.

The honorees are Susan DeMuth, Dr. Joan Flender, Dr. William Packard, Lynn Pickard and E. Philip Saunders.

The Foundation announced three levels of business sponsorship available, Bronze ($50), Silver ($100) and Gold ($250); individual or business sponsorships in any amount are also welcome, all of which will receive recognition in our media advertising and Induction Ceremony program.

The Induction Ceremony will take place at the American Legion on October 20. A limited number of tickets can be purchased for $30.00 at the Dansville Central School District office.

For more information call (585) 335-4000.

###